

BIOLOGY TEACHING ASSISTANT APPLICATION

The Biology Dept. may hire additional TAs each quarter, depending on course enrollments and availability of Biology grad students to TA. TO APPLY: fill out this form and send it along with a current cv and copies of undergraduate and graduate transcripts (unofficial is fine) electronically to eoc@u.washington.edu or as a hard copy to Eileen O'Connor, Department of Biology, Box 355320.

Positions are advertised quarterly on UW Hires and deadlines are generally about 6 weeks before the beginning of each quarter.

Name _____ Date _____
(as listed on Social Security Card)

Student number: _____

Social Security # _____ OR EID # _____
(if new employee) (available on web at: MyUW.washington.edu)

Email address: _____ Department _____

Office (room) Number _____ Phone: _____

Home/ Cell Phone _____ Faculty adviser _____

Student Status (circle one): Undergraduate Graduate Post-doc Not Enrolled

Please specify any other financial support you will have during the quarters for which you apply.

If you are a graduate student enrolled in a program outside Biology, please indicate your status:

BA or BS _____ have Masters _____ PhD candidate level _____ or attach an email message from your payroll coordinator specifying your status.

If English is not your native language, please provide SPEAK test documentation.

For which quarter(s) and year are you applying? _____

Which courses are you interested in TAing? (see UW catalog for course #s and descriptions)

List specific course requests:

or check categories below for which you feel qualified (we generally require at least 1 upper division course and good grades, in the subject matter to be taught):

- cell and molecular _____
 - ecology _____
 - evolution/taxonomy _____
 - plant physiology _____
 - animal physiology _____
 - organismal (specify type, i.e. algae, marine inverts, fungi, insects, etc.) _____
- Are you willing to be assigned to a class that involves animal dissections? _____

Previous teaching experience:

Do you have any travel, fieldwork, or vacation plans that would occur during the quarter for which you are applying? If so, please describe.