

Biology Seminar

Speaker: Kiana Swearingen

University of Washington | Deputy Title IX Coordinator for Education & Prevention | Office of the Title IX Coordinator

<https://www.washington.edu/titleix/title-ix-education-and-outreach/>

Title IX: Understanding Your Role in Prevention and Response

Wed May 7, 2025 | 12:00 PM PDT | HCK 132

This training will provide staff, faculty, and graduate students with an opportunity to deepen their understanding of Title IX. Topics include recognizing sex- and gender-based discrimination, harassment, and violence, understanding employee reporting expectations, accessing support resources, and applying best practices for responding to disclosures. This session will also cover rights and modifications related to pregnancy and related conditions. Additionally, it will include a sneak peek at upcoming changes coming to the UW's Title IX office. Whether new to the University or seeking a refresher, attendees will gain essential knowledge to help foster respectful and equitable learning and working environments.

Seminar Speaker Host: Terence Leach

